

There Are Many Uses For The Valuable Tonic-Stimulant Duffy's

COUGHS AND COLDS weaken the system and open the way for more serious ills if neglected. The prompt treatment of a cough or cold with Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed, usually brings relief and may often forestall grip and pneumonia.

BRAIN FOG is usually the result of overwork, causing mental and physical depression. The use of a mild tonic-stimulant such as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey stirs the vital organs to activity and helps the system to throw off the poisons accumulated in all parts of the body.

EMERGENCIES frequently arise (usually in the night when least expected) requiring immediate relief, and when a physician is not available. The use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in an emergency assures prompt relief as it is a stimulant made for medicinal use only. It is dependable—it is pure.

CONVALESCENCE or the period of recovery from illness is usually a trying experience. The system being in a run-down condition does not always respond with the desired effect. The use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed, assists in strengthening the system by its stimulating action and may be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Old AGE does not necessarily mean a state of feebleness. Nature's machine merely slows up in its work and the use of the mild tonic-stimulant Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, as directed, accelerates the vital functions to a healthy action, thereby assisting the stomach in its important duties.

TRAVELING is a pleasure to many, but the change of climate, drinking water and food, sometimes affect the digestive organs and cause slight indispositions. Prompt relief is obtained by the mild stimulating action of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, if taken as directed. The traveler's bag should contain Duffy's.

READERS SOLVING DIAMOND PUZZLE

Solution of Mystery Baffling Problem, Says One Letter Received.

CIRCULAR FURNISHED

One Pleasant Feature of This Contest Is that One Needs to Do No Solicitation.

"Believe me, that 'Diamond Mystery' is some puzzle," said a caller at the Herald office yesterday afternoon. "But, believe me again, I'll keep at it until I get at the bottom of it if it takes until midnight on May 21," she continued. And armed with several books or charts, the woman departed to delve into the mysteries of the illustrious but by no means impossible problem.

Another, who sends a solution and a subscription, concludes his letter with the remark: "This represents hours of careful labor, for the puzzle has proved baffling in the extreme." Yet so sure is this contestant of his solution that he plays the limit on his subscription. While no one yet knows the correct solution, further with the puzzle, the contest is safe to assume that this contestant will verify his figures before resting his case entirely.

No Limit to Solutions.
A number of people are sending in answers without fully acquainting themselves with the general conditions which should know before submitting their solutions. None that is not accompanied by a remittance will be registered. This remittance, which will be applied on subscription, may range from ninety cents to $7.20.

As many different solutions may be registered as a contestant desires, provided each one is accompanied by a remittance to be applied on subscription. Full page circulars explaining all the details of the contest will be mailed on application to The Herald.

One of the pleasant features of The Herald's new contest is that it involves no solicitation from others. Each does his own work irrespective of any rival, and with the assurance that if he does it just a little better he'll win, and, if just as well, that he will have an equal show in the finals. However, if there should be no ties in the "diamond puzzle," there will, of course, be no necessity for a remittance to be applied on subscription to get busy on the diamonds. You will have plenty of time to send in another solution later if the early one should not prove right.

AUDIENCE VISITS SUNNY LANDS WITH ELMENDORF

Interesting Parts of Southern Italy and Sicily Shown on Screen at New National Theater.

Dwight L. Elmendorf, the travelogueur, gave the last of his 1916 series of travelogues at the New National Theater yesterday afternoon, when his subject was "Southern Italy and Sicily." The scenic beauty and grandeur of "Sunny Italy," the land of tourists, was shown in a fine assortment of colored slides and moving pictures.

The journey began at Naples, a metropolitan city not unlike a metropolis of our own country, but the glimpses of Pozzuoli, Ravello, Amalfi and Sorrento contained elements peculiarly descriptive of Italy and Sicily. The pictures of "Fountain of Pompeii," and of the Greek temples at Paestum, composed the interesting, archaeological portion of the lecture.

Palermo and Syracuse were the principal cities of Sicily visited, but the many pictures of the byways throughout the beautiful island were easily convincing that it is one of the most beautiful places in the world.

WILSON TO TALK AT CONFERENCE

Methodists Will Hear Executive's Speech Tonight on Bishop Ashbury's Life.

RESTRICT ATTENDANCE

Two New District Superintendents and Delegates to General Conference Will Be Selected Today.

President Woodrow Wilson tonight will address the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The occasion will be the centennial of Bishop Ashbury. The other speakers will be Bishop Theodore S. Henderson and Bishop Edgar Cranston. The service will be held in the Foundry M. E. Church, Sixteenth and Church streets northwest. Admission to the church will be by card of invitation. It was announced yesterday that practically every seat in the church would be occupied by the members of the conference, their families, and members of the Foundry Church. The cards were distributed among the members at the service last night.

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, the Board of Sunday Schools, and the Board of Christian Education, will be celebrated yesterday following the business session of the second day of the formal conference.

Rev. Frank R. Beam delivered the principal address at the celebration of the anniversary of the Board of Education. Rev. Edgar Blake delivered the oration for the anniversary of the Board of Sunday Schools.

Rev. A. W. Kenner, in charge of the first Emergency ambulance to go to the scene, said that under the new order of the police department to observe the speed laws, it took him eleven minutes to reach the injured man.

While awaiting the arrival of the firemen, Dr. Kenner and Magruder, of Emergency, passed stimulants down through a hole in the debris to the entombed colored man. They revived him, and he talked freely to the firemen while they were digging him out.

At the business meeting yesterday morning Dr. Thomas M. Hare, superintendent of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, pleaded for support in the Maryland prohibition campaign. Rev. W. W. Davis, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, pleaded for the co-operation of the members of the conference in forcing better conditions in Maryland. He spoke also on the open defiance of the Sunday closing law in Maryland.

Dr. W. L. McDowell, District Superintendent, in his annual report, told of progress being made along all lines. He gave a detailed account of the increased activities of the American University in all branches of its work, and pleaded for financial support.

The speaker stated that the Home for the Aged has had a wonderful year, and also spoke encouragingly of the Webb Hays Training School for Deaf-mutes and Missionaries. He said Sibley Hospital was continuing its commendable work. He commended especially the good work of the thirty-eight charges of the Washington District. Eight hundred conversions and 600 probationers were reported for thirty-eight churches.

The conference sent a telegram to the president of the Maryland Senate, urging the passage of the Hall race track bill.

The conference adopted the "Methodist" as its official organ, but without financial support.

Two new district superintendents and ten delegates to the general conference to be held at Saratoga Springs next month will be selected today.

The vacancies of the district superintendents will occur in the Baltimore east district and in the Frederick district. In the Baltimore district, Rev. J. St. Clair Neal will be retired on account of the six-year occupancy limit. Dr. Neal is scheduled for appointment as successor to Rev. Charles W. Baldwin, as general secretary of the Baltimore City Mission and Church Extension Society. Rev. George C. Bacon will retire from the Frederick district on account of the age limit.

Rev. John R. Edwards, pastor of the "Brook Church," is prominently mentioned as a successor to Dr. Neal, but he is being strongly opposed by Rev. John T. Ensor, pastor of Mount Pleasant Church.

When Constipated or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhea, bilious, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

DIG WORKMAN FROM UNDERNEATH DEBRIS

Physicians Pass Stimulants to Entrapped Worker Buried for One Hour Beneath Wrecked Wall.

A group of workmen bracing the foundation of a brick wall in the rear of 2484 Phillips court northwest at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon narrowly escaped being crushed to death when the wall fell.

Harry Toller, colored, of 205 M street northwest, was buried beneath two tons of debris, from which he was rescued by firemen of No. 2 Truck Company an hour after the wall fell.

He was hurried to Emergency Hospital, and probably will recover. The other men fled and escaped the falling bricks. The wall was six feet high and three-bricks thick. It was used to dike a dirt bank.

Dr. A. W. Kenner, in charge of the first Emergency ambulance to go to the scene, said that under the new order of the police department to observe the speed laws, it took him eleven minutes to reach the injured man.

While awaiting the arrival of the firemen, Dr. Kenner and Magruder, of Emergency, passed stimulants down through a hole in the debris to the entombed colored man. They revived him, and he talked freely to the firemen while they were digging him out.

Secretary of War Refuses to Exhibit View of "The Colonel As I See Him"

Col. Roosevelt's caustic comment on President Wilson's Mexican policy did not escape the notice of either the President or his Cabinet yesterday.

There was deep resentment over the Colonel's choosing this particular time to attack the administration, but neither the President nor any member of his Cabinet, with the exception of Secretary of War Baker, would talk for publication about the Colonel's remarks.

Secretary Baker saw no reason why he should not speak his mind freely in response to a specific question relating to the Colonel's criticism of the War Department. But in speaking his mind, he painted a picture of "The Colonel as I See Him," which Mr. Baker later thought had better not be placed on exhibition.

Consequently, he asked the newspaper men not to use the notes they had made of his description. He confined himself to this statement in reply to Col. Roosevelt's criticism of the start of the Mexican campaign.

"He (Col. Roosevelt) was in a place at the time where his facilities for accurate observation were of the very best."

When another member of the President's Cabinet was asked if he had read Col. Roosevelt's comment, he replied:

"I read part of it. I never read advertisements all the way through."

Other Cabinet members had comment along the same line but would not be quoted.
